

ORIENTATION IN PARDUBICE

General information

The University hall, place of the seminar, is located at Polabiny, a Pardubice's quarter. There are several possibilities, how to reach the hall. Look at the map at the end of the document to have an overview.

Taxi

The taxi stations are located as inside of the railway station, as well as in the several places of city centre. The most known is located at the beginning of Třída Míru. It can be quite difficult to catch a taxi by lashing, since it is not a habit yet in Pardubice.

All the drivers should know where is the University Hall; however it can be sometimes difficult to explain your destination. We recommend taking the map with you.

The total price of the taxi should be up to 250 CZK.

Public transport

The university hall can be reached by a public transport. From city centre you can use trolleybuses number 3 and 17. One way ticket costs about 15 CZK and can be purchased at news dealers or directly by bus driver, where it is a little more expensive. You have to leave the bus at "Polabiny - Hradecká " street, the second stop after the bridge over Labe river.

Walk

The university hall can be, of course, reached on foot, because it is about 1300 m from the city centre. Aim to the North direction, along the Hradecká Street. You should cross Pavel Wonka's bridge and walk straight ahead for about 1000 m to a quite big crossroad (Hradecká, Bělehradská and Studentská streets), from which the university hall is already visible.
